14 STATE OF ARIZONA,
15 Plaintiff,
16 vs.
JAMES ARTHUR RAY,
17 Defendant.

CASE NO. V1300CR201080049

Hon. Warren R. Darrow

DIVISION PTB

DEFENSE PROPOSED JUROR QUESTIONNAIRE

19
20 The Court has requested the parties' input on the proposed juror questionnaire distributed
21 at the evidentiary hearing of November 9, 2010. In response to the Court's request, Defendant
22 James Arthur Ray hereby proposes a detailed questionnaire. The Defense proposes this 23 questionnaire because it will allow voir dire of prospective jurors to proceed most efficiently for 24 all involved. The questions are designed to be neutral and to avoid suggesting prejudgment of 25 any facts in the case. Moreover, the Defense submits that if any questions are objectionable for 26 any reason, the parties can work with together to resolve such objections. The Defense has 27 shared this proposed questionnaire and timeline with the State. The State has informed the 28

1 Defense that it opposes any expansion of the jury questionnaire distributed by the Court on
2 November 9, 2010.

3 Should the Court believe a detailed questionnaire appropriate, Mr. Ray proposes the 4 following schedule:

5 February 2: Venire reports to Courtroom for introductions of parties and distribution of
6 questionnaires. Prospective jurors complete the questionnaires in the Courthouse and submit
7 completed forms to the clerk by the end of the business day.

8 February 4: Completed questionnaires are copied and distributed to the parties.

9 February 16: Voir dire begins.

QUESTIONNAIRE FOR POTENTIAL JURORS

The information on this first page is confidential and will be kept only by the Jury Commissioner to advise you whether and when you will be required to return for further participation in the jury selection process.

Please print or write legibly.

Name _____

Juror Badge Number _____

Daytime Contact or Message Phone Number _____

E-mail Contact Address _____

Juror Name _____

You are a potential juror in this case. You are sworn to give true and complete answers to all questions. You are not to discuss with anyone anything about the case, jury selection or this questionnaire. Your answers will be reviewed only by the judge and the lawyers in this case.

We need your help so that we can select a fair and impartial jury in this case. Only the judge and lawyers will know your name. Do not assume anything from these questions. The fact they are being asked does not necessarily have anything to do with the evidence that you will hear.

As you answer the questions that follow, please keep in mind that there are no "right" or "wrong" answers, only complete and incomplete answers.

After you have filled out the Questionnaire completely, please return it in the postage-paid envelope that has been enclosed for your convenience. Unless you are otherwise contacted by the Court at the phone number or email address you have provided, YOU MUST APPEAR FOR JURY DUTY ON FEBRUARY 16, 2011, AT 8:30 A.M.

Thank you for your cooperation.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED by the Court that you not discuss anything about this case with anyone: not the lawyers, your fellow jurors, your friends, or anyone else, including your spouse and your family. If anyone approaches you and attempts to learn about any aspect of the case or this questionnaire, including the questions, your answers, and the case summary, you may not answer their inquiries. If they persist, you should report this to the Court or to the Jury Commissioner. All answers to these questions must be your own answers. Failure to abide by this Order can result in sanctions to you. You are to consider that you are sworn to give true and complete answers to all questions in this questionnaire.

The purpose of this questionnaire is not to ask unnecessarily about personal matters, but to determine if there is anything about this case or the nature of the crimes charged that might cause you to be less than a 100% fair and impartial juror in considering this criminal case. There are no "right" or "wrong" answers; there are only truthful answers. It is essential that your answers are not influenced by the opinions of others.

Please answer all questions by yourself, giving your very best effort to answer each question thoughtfully and honestly. It is important that you respond to every question. If no response is given and questions are left blank, further questioning by the Court and/or the attorneys will be necessary. If you cannot answer a question because you do not understand it, write "Do not understand" in the space after the question. If you cannot answer a question because you do not know the answer, write "Do not know" in the space after the question. If you need extra space to answer any question, please use the extra blank sheets of paper included at the end of the questionnaire. Be sure to include the question number with the remainder of your answer.

Personal private information you provide will be treated as confidential. All information will be shared at this stage only with the parties involved in this case. Your original questionnaires will become part of the official court record and all copies will be returned to the court and destroyed. The questionnaires will be photo copied so that the parties participating in the jury selection process will have a copy. Do not write on the backside of the pages of the questionnaire.

ADMONITION

Jurors in a trial must determine the facts of the case only from the evidence presented in the courtroom. Arizona law prohibits a juror from receiving evidence that is not properly admitted at trial. You are prohibited from conducting any research or investigation regarding this case from this moment forward until you are formally notified by the Court that you have been released from jury duty in this matter. The prohibition on discussing the case with anyone else and/or doing any investigation or research includes using e-mail, Facebook, MySpace, Twitter, instant messaging, Blackberry messaging, I-phone, I-touches, Google, Yahoo, or any internet search engine, or any other form of electronic communication for any purpose relating to this case. This includes, but is not limited to, blogging about the case or your experiences as a juror in this case, discussing the evidence, the lawyers, the parties, the Court, your deliberations, your reactions to the testimony or exhibits or any aspect of the case or your courtroom experiences with anyone until the trial has ended and you have been discharged as jurors. Until then, you may only tell people that you are on a jury and the estimated schedule for the trial, but do not tell them anything else except to say that you cannot talk about the trial until it is over.

Again, it is very important that your answers be your own individual answers.

This trial is expected to take several months. It should start on February 16, 2011 and the end of the case will depend on circumstances that cannot always be anticipated. The Court and parties expect that jurors may be required to serve for four months. The jury will hear evidence Tuesday through Friday from 9 am. to 5 p.m. There will be breaks during the day, including a lunch break of about an hour. Due to the length of the trial, reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate the special needs of individual jurors.
